

Lösungsvorschlag:

Exercise 1: Comprehension and Analysis (Total Points: 30)

1. Identification and explanation of parallelism (10 points)
 - Correct identification of the type of parallelism (5 points)
 - Clear and thorough explanation (5 points)
 2. Implication about the time period (10 points)
 - Correct insight about the implications (5 points)
 - Quality and depth of explanation (5 points)
 3. Reaction to the excerpt (10 points)
 - Reflection on the style and tone (5 points)
 - Connection of reaction to the text (5 points)
-

Exercise 2: Creative Writing Prompt (Total Points: 40)

1. Adherence to the word limit (10 points)
 - Stick to the 200-word limit (10 points)
 2. Creativity and Expression (15 points)
 - Originality and creativity in vocabulary use (7 points)
 - Conveyance of emotions and experiences within the limit (8 points)
 3. Clarity and Coherence (15 points)
 - Clear communication of ideas (8 points)
 - Logical sequencing of diary entry (7 points)
-

Exercise 3: Argumentative Essay (Total Points: 70)

1. Thesis Statement (10 points)
 - Clear and concise thesis relevant to the topic (10 points)
2. Arguments and Evidence (30 points)
 - Three well-constructed arguments (15 points)
 - Use of credible evidence to support each argument (15 points)
3. Counterargument and Refutation (15 points)
 - Acknowledgment of a valid counterargument (5 points)
 - Logical and convincing refutation (10 points)
4. Conclusion (10 points)
 - Strong restatement of thesis (5 points)
 - Effective summarization of key points (5 points)
5. Grammar and Style (5 points)
 - Good use of academic writing style and grammar (5 points)

Overall Evaluation:

- Exercise 1 (30 Points)
- Exercise 2 (40 Points)
- Exercise 3 (70 Points)

Grand Total: 140 Points

Remember, each full point is a high-five for your brain cells, and partial points are like a gentle nod of encouragement. Keep reaching for those brain-cell high-fives and have fun learning!